Judges Bios*

Saturday Morning

Peri Suenram is from Dillon, MT and has spent a lifetime showing horses in a variety of disciplines, breeds and associations. She is currently showing in AQHA shows and exhibits the outstanding Western Pleasure mare, One Good Fantasy. In 2006 she attained Superior Amateur status in Western Pleasure. She is a two time Amateur Western Pleasure Champion at the Canadian Nationals in 2004 and 2005. She also attained a saddle for winning the Amateur Western Pleasure Circuit in Utah in 2006. Peri and her husband Andy have two daughters who are showing in the 13 and under division. She is committed to helping youth enjoy their horses AND learn good horsemanship. Peri is pleased to be able to help the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association.

Saturday Afternoon

Donna Waylett has a broad based background in the equine industry. The life-long horsewoman has spent 30 years breeding and training horses and helping the youth in southwestern Montana as an educator and teacher. She grew up trail riding, rodeoing, and showing horses regionally-primarily reining, western pleasure, horsemanship, barrel racing, halter and showmanship. Donna was a member of the University of Montana intercollegiate rodeo team, qualified for the College National Finals rodeo, named Miss Rodeo Western Montana College and was the first woman to be named to the Rodeo Hall of Fame at U of M Western. Since then she has been active in the AQHA and APHA winning numerous all around and championship awards.
